

Report of reports of successful integrative experiences - IFB Multicampi Essay Contest 2023

Roberta Bellillo Zardim¹.

ABSTRACT

Considering the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights of 1948, among other documents, National Guidelines for Human Rights Education were established through CNE Resolution No. 1, of May 30, 2012. According to Article 5 of this Resolution, the central objective of Human Rights Education is training for life and coexistence, in the daily exercise of Human Rights as a way of life and social, political, economic and cultural organization at the regional, national and planetary levels. In order to promote discussion and reflection, among students on campuses, on the subject, the Dean of Education, in partnership with the Dean of Research and Innovation and the Dean of Extension and Culture, launched the 1st Multicampi Essay Contest of the Federal Institute of Brasília in 2022, with thirty-eight entries, six winners, divided into two categories: Higher Education and Technical High School, awarded in a ceremony called Literary Soirée held on March 30, 2023. In continuity with the actions that promote inclusion, permanence and success, in the following year the Dean of Education launched the 2nd Multicampi Essay Contest, with the experience of the previous year it was possible to improve the dissemination soon, the adhesion of students grew at the rate of 278%, going from 38 to 106 enrolled. The award increased from six to twelve recipients, divided into Higher Education, prose and verse, Technical Education at the secondary level, prose and verse.

Keywords: Human rights, Writing.

¹ IFB – Federal Institute of Education, Science and Technology of Brasília – DF